Statement of purpose

I am a classically trained pianist who believes in the ability of music to help connect and enrich people's lives. I deeply enjoy the rehearsal process and being part of the creation of each unique show and performance. I am a detail-oriented, organized, and self-motivated individual that strives to bring my absolute best to each project. As a mentor once said, our best work is always just ahead of us.

Administrative & Teaching employment

Magnolia Music – Piano Instructor & Vocal Coach (May 2026 – Present)

I am responsible for teaching students piano and helping students find their own musical voice. I currently have 15 students, each with an individualized curriculum I have created for them to keep them engaged and growing with their own musical interests.

PALAKA Arts & Music – Piano Instructor & Choir Director (Aug. 2025 – Jan. 2026)

I instructed multiple group piano classes and an adult choir session. I managed to work with students at various levels in the same classroom while ensuring that everyone progressed normally. With the choir, I collected repertoire that would inspire them to find their voice and feel comfortable with harmony.

Liv & Ken Productions – Co-Producer (Nov. 2024 – Aug. 2025)

As co-producer, I worked with my other co-producers to successfully bring an original musical, The Family Copoli to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. This meant we put together a successful application of the show, negotiated a theater space and time for the performance, brought together a cast and crew, and raised over $60,000 to ensure access to the theater, as well as housing and travel for the team.

Melodramatics Theatre Co. – Co-Producer & Resident Music Director (Aug. 2021 - May 2023)

As co-producer and resident music director, I worked with the other co-producers and creative team to choose the season of shows each year. I worked closely with Music Theatre International and Concord Theatrics to obtain the rights of the shows. I put together a technical team and maintained a document outlining company culture and organization, and I ensured that each semester the budget was maintained.

Additional skills

I have excellent sightreading skills, am fluent in Spanish, have experience driving U-Hauls, and have a valid driver's license in California.

Recent Music Directing credits*

As a music director, I take on the additional responsibilities of audition pianist, vocal coach, rehearsal pianist, primary keyboardist, band director, and conductor. I work closely with the director and choreographer to maintain the artistic vision and integrity of the show and additionally work with the stage manager to create the rehearsal schedule and ensure rehearsal time is effectively used.
